this book is about anglo american literary heritage it argues that readers on both sides of the atlantic shaped the contours of international english in the 1800s expressing love for books and authors in a wide range of media and social practices it highlights how in the wake of american independence the affection bestowed on authors who became international objects of celebration and commemoration was a major force in the invention of transnational english literature the popular canon defined by shared language and tradition while love as such is difficult to quantify and recover the records of such affection survive not just in print but also in other media in monuments in architecture and in the ephemera of material culture thus this collection brings into view a wide range of nineteenth century expressions of love for literature and its creators
