this book is a memoir on the life of videh upadhyay in a short span of time videh created a lifetime of knowledge across the fields of environmental laws water laws indian judiciary and indian constitution this book incapsulates some of his important work contains articles written by the legal luminaries and friends of videh on a personal level videh touched many lives young and old this book provides a platform for his admirers friends and family members to express their love and emotions and revisit their memories through interesting anecdotes interspersed with memorable photographs the objective of this book is to relive old memories and importantly inspire youngsters to take a life journey of simple living and high thinking just like what videh did happy reading the book begins with the momentous task of demolishing the prejudices attached with the phrase founding fathers that has held an immense sway over constitutional interpretation it shows that women members of the indian constituent assembly had painstakingly co authored a constitution that embodied a moral imagination developed by years of feminist politics it traces the genealogies of several constitutional provisions to argue that without the interventions of these women framers the constitution would hardly have a much poorer document of rights and statecraft that it is situating these interventions in the larger trajectory of indian feminism in which they are rooted in the nationalist discourse with which they perpetually negotiated and in the larger human rights discourse of the 1940s the book shows that the women members of the indian constituent assembly were much more than the founding mothers of a republic
