this book love to god is the first book of the three book trilogy of love to the trinity series love to god is followed by love to jesus and love to the holy spirit all three books are meant to be read together but were not printed in one volume because of the size an estimated five hundred pages that would have resulted each book in the trilogy does not address the entirety of the subject of god jesus and the holy spirit entirely separately the reader should remember the book deals with the concept of a trinity so if a reader is wondering why in one book or another certain topics were chosen which are different in others i can only admit my choices were sometimes partly arbitrary i would like to stress that all three books are meant to be read in developing an understanding of how lessons from the trinity and the bible can help us understand the many and often difficult social problems and religious concepts an assumption by many non believers is that a belief in christ disqualifies them from being rational and on target about a multitude of social issues after all if a believer accepts that adam and eve were the first humans that believer cannot talk intelligently about human evolution in that case that individual would dismiss entirely evidence for earlier hominids such as homo habilis or homo erectus nor can such a believer talk about a host of other issues such as abortion or euthanasia these books attempt to show that this assumption is not true these books take the position that although the bible is god inspired it is not inerrant i hold to and accept the apostles creed unequivocally this series cites hard evidence for miracles and expands on concepts such as charity truth justice separation of church and state the multiverse and a multitude of other concepts all books were written in about a five month period starting in early 2019 almost all topics were presented initially in the two book the gospels of fred series which include the gospel of fred followed by the second gospel of fred twelve different topics are discussed in each book in the trilogy series and each topic has several articles with accompanying doggerel topics in this book love to god are who is god the old testament the multiverse the catholic church christian tenets homosexuality alien life religious hypocrisy christian ecology cruelty and a few other even more controversial topics at the beginning of some chapters i explain briefly why the specific following topics were chosen for inclusion in the chapter in reading all three books the reader will encounter almost every significant problem facing christians today discussed from the standpoint of a belief in jesus put on your thinking caps these doggerels will challenge you to think
