in this fifth anthology of zimbabwean short stories from weaver press fifteen writers respond to the topic of writing free and offer their thoughts about how and why they wrote as they did the stories reflect a wide variety of freedoms from tyranny from hunger from abuse from the shackles of tradition and even from the traditional constraints of narrative convention but there are cautionary tales too political change may be liberating for the adults who suffered for it but will their children share in the euphoria of new found freedom will a departure from domestic poverty to the calm waters of the diaspora deliver all that was hoped for it is the grass always greener beyond the fence of a stifling marriage zimbabwe has had more than its share of social and material deprivation in recent years and people's responses have taken many forms writing free offers an engaging and kaleidoscopic sample of these and in doing so gives an intimate portrait of a country in transition ancestors kings and the dao outlines the evolution of musical performance in early china first within and then ultimately away from the socio religious context of ancestor worship examining newly discovered bamboo texts from the warring states period constance a cook compares the rhetoric of western zhou 1046 771 bce and spring and autumn 770 481 bce bronze inscriptions with later occurrences of similar terms in which ritual music began to be used as a form of self cultivation and education cook's analysis links the creation of such classics as the book of odes with the ascendance of the individual practitioner further connecting the social actors in three types of ritual boys coming of age heirs promoted into ancestral government positions and the philosophical stages of transcendence experienced in self cultivation the focus of this study is on excavated texts it is the first to use both bronze and bamboo narratives to show the evolution of a single ritual practice by viewing the ancient inscribed materials and the transmitted classics from this new perspective cook uncovers new linkages in terms of how the materials were shaped and reshaped over time and illuminates the development of eulogy and song in changing ritual contexts there have been many prophecies recorded throughout human history prophets in the old testament predicted the coming of the messiah h g wells and george orwell in the 19th and 20th centuries foresaw and depicted the future society in their novels and now in the 21st century happy science is foretelling how the coronavirus pandemic a worldwide disaster will turn out from now on happy science has already published spiritual messages from the spirits of jesus christ and edgar cayce regarding this pandemic and in this book we have included the messages from the spirits of shakya muni buddha and john lennon the latter being a branch spirit of jesus christ the two spirits warn us about the troubles that await humankind require us who live today to reflect on the arrogance of belittling god and teach us how to overcome difficulties we humans must take their messages seriously okawa is the master of happy science a religion founded in 1986 and now joined by people in more than 100 countries across the world he has published a total of more than 2 700 books worldwide many of which are translated into 31 languages among these books over 550 of them are the spiritual interview series recorded through okawa s unparalleled spiritual ability he can summon the spirit of any deceased person or any guardian spirit of a living person oftentimes spirits visit okawa to voice their opinion through him the coronavirus outbreak is not an epidemic of mother nature but a part of a grander plan of the heavenly world in chapter one buddha says this will not be overcome through medicine science or education the power of god will then take effect at the same time devils will also be active but the power of god will begin to work in chapter two john lennon says something else will become prevalent in china anyway we are planning to stop them from taking over foreign countries and doing bad things what the world needs now are many people who work as a part of god s power you too can become a part of the power to save the world we hope you will join us
