much more than a travel or holiday guide the book is first and foremost a paradisiacal photo album it features opulent photographs of places that seem too perfect to be real pricing and contact information is provided for each hotel in recent years critical interest in francophone literature has become increasingly pronounced in the case of the french caribbean the work of several writers aime cesaire frantz fanon edouard glissant and patrick chamoiseau for example has gained international recognition and has formed a vital part of more general debates on history culture language and identity in the post colonial world the majority of such writers however have been male and perhaps recalling the preference that france has always shown for the island have come in large part from martinique mapping a tradition francophone women's writing from guadeloupe aims to explore a different side of francophone caribbean writing through the examination of selected novels by jacqueline manicom michele lacrosil maryse conde simone schwarz bart and dany bebel gisler placing the work of these writers in the context of that of their better known male counterparts this study argues that it has provided an important mode of intervention in and disruption of a literary tradition which has failed to address questions of sexual difference and has often excluded issues relating to french caribbean women at the same time this study suggests that guadeloupean women's writing of the last thirty years may be seen to constitute a tradition in itself replete with its own influences and inheritances at once within and outside the dominant tradition women's writing from guadeloupe and martinique has come to occupy a position at the forefront of contemporary efforts to expand and redefine a still burgeoning corpus of literary and theoretical work
