religious education in the secondary school is a comprehensive straightforward introduction to the effective teaching of religious education in the secondary classroom acknowledging the highly valuable yet often misunderstood contribution of religion. This text shows how the subject can be taught in a way that explores the impact of religion on the lives of people and society, engaging pupils and preparing them to become individuals who celebrate and respect diversity. This second edition has been thoroughly updated and includes a new chapter on religion and worldviews and new material on the development and assessment of a religious education curriculum. It is illustrated throughout with ideas for teaching at different key stages and offers expert chapters introducing you to both the world religions and the core aspects of effective teaching and learning with an emphasis on developing an understanding of the importance and different ways of meeting the learning needs of all pupils. Key chapters cover the nature of religious education, what is religion and worldviews, understanding different pedagogies of religious education, effective planning and assessment, an approach to teaching across the key stages, core subject knowledge in Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, Islam, Judaism and Sikhism. Written by an experienced teacher, teacher educator and examiner, Religious Education in the Secondary School is a succinct compendium and has a real classroom applicability offering all trainee teachers as well as those teaching religious education as specialists or non-specialists a wealth of support and inspiration.

For courses in supervisory management, supervision and first line management, written by well-respected educators in the field, this skills-focused introduction to supervision captures the reality of supervising in the 2000s. It takes students on the job by first explaining the job of supervisor and then featuring a wide range of examples of how supervisors operate in real situations. The focus is on key skills needed for effective supervision, e.g. goal setting, delegating, budgeting, interviewing, negotiating, counseling, coaching, conducting groups, meetings and handling grievances. Rich in instructional aids and experiential opportunities, it features lots of vignettes and visual stimuli to make concepts come alive. Now packaged with each new student text, the self-assessment library v2.0 CD-ROM now accompanies each Robbins Supervision Today 4e textbook. This unique, easy-to-use assessment tool allows you to assess your knowledge, beliefs, feelings and actions in regard to a wide range of personal skills, abilities and interests. Automatically graded, self-scoring exercises generate individual analysis which can be printed or emailed. The 45 exercises located on the CD-ROM are divided into three parts: What About Me, Working with Others and Life in Organizations, as listed in the table of
